Beowulf Website Specifications

Home:
-Youtube link (Beowulf: An Epic Rap)
-Document (Beowulf: An Epic Rap - Lyrics)

Literary Devices:
-Alliteration repetition of consonants in two or more words
-Allusion any reference direct or indirect to a person, place, event, or character in history, mythology or sacred texts
-Catastrophe the concluding action of a tragedy, where the principal character meets death or other significant defeat
-Reversal the thrilling change of luck for the protagonist at the last moment in a comedy or tragedy

Mood & Setting:
-Mood the atmosphere or emotional effect generated by the words, images, situations in a literary work
-Setting a combination of the locale, historical background, season, or hour, and spiritual, ethnic and cultural background

Irony:
-Dramatic Irony affairs are the tragic reverse of what the participants expected
-Tragic Irony the most noble and most deserving person, because of the very grounds of his or her excellence, dies in defeat

Characters:
-Characters living beings in a work of fiction
-Protagonist the leading character in a play or story, the one with a goal
-Round Character one possessing the depth and complexity of a living person
-Flat Character one dimensional serving purpose only to further the plot

More:
-Image
-Embed code
-Button link
-File

Tools

Tool	Page(s) it Appears On
-Title	Home, Literary Devices, Mood & Setting, Irony, Characters
-Text	Literary Devices, Mood & Setting, Irony, Characters, More
-Image	Irony, More
-Gallery	Mood & Setting
-Slide Show	Characters
-Map	Mood & Setting
-Button	More
-Divider	Literary Devices, Mood & Setting, Irony, More
-Spacer	Literary Devices, Mood & Setting, Irony, Characters, More
-Document	Home
-Youtube	Home
-Embed Code	More
-File	More
-Block Quote	Literary Devices